

Dr. Keisha Grey is a native of Kingston, Jamaica and has lived in South Florida for the last 16 years. She serves as the Strategy Manager for the Children's Services Council of Broward County (CSC). In her role as Strategy Manager, she leads the agency's efforts in community collaboration initiatives providing guidance and support to the Broward Children's Strategic Plan. The Broward Children's Strategic Plan is Broward County's collective action initiative that provides opportunities for community stakeholders to improve the lives of children and families. It includes over 40 committees and informs funding decisions for CSC. Recently, Dr. Grey co-authored the seminal "2018 Status of Girls and Young Women in Broward County" report. She also co-authored the chapter "Beyond student and teacher: Recollections and reflections on, and critique of cross cultural mentoring" in the book Women of color navigating mentor relationships: Critical examinations.

In addition, Dr. Grey serves as one of the key members of the Broward Partners for Racial Equity, Broward People of Color Steering Committee, the Girls Coordinating Council of Broward, Homeless Youth & Families and the Broward Metropolitan Planning Organization's Community Advisory Committee. Dr. Grey is the Chair of the Stop Trafficking and Rescue Survivors committee which is dedicated to focuses on children and human trafficking. In the community, Dr. Grey is a member of the Jamaican Women of Florida, a non-profit organization that empowers Jamaican women in Florida through networking, mentoring and personal development. Dr. Grey also serves as the Pre-K representative for the School Advisory Council at her son's school and also volunteers as the Team Manager for the U9 Lauderhill Lions Soccer travel soccer team.