

Bio
Brendalyn Edwards

Brendalyn Edwards currently serves as Associate General Counsel for Universal Property & Casualty Insurance Company, assisting in protecting the legal interests and operations of Florida's largest homeowner's insurance company.

Prior to joining Universal, Brendalyn served as the Acting Director of Gaming Enforcement for the U.S. Virgin Islands Department of Justice, where she managed and supervised all functions of the governmental entity responsible for enforcing the casino laws of the territory.

She has also served as Assistant General Counsel for the Eleventh Judicial Circuit of Florida in Miami, representing and advising judicial officers and staff in court proceedings, preparing pleadings in response to various actions involving the courts, and handling the litigation of petitions filed against the judiciary. In this capacity, she provided counsel regarding the court's administrative matters, conducted ethics training programs for judges and hearing officers, and served as advisor to the court's Professionalism Committee.

Brendalyn has demonstrated her continued commitment to the law and professionalism through her involvement with several organizations including The Florida Bar's Committee on Diversity & Inclusion, the Wm. Reece Smith, Jr. Leadership Academy, the Board of Directors for the Miami-Dade Chapter of the Florida Association for Women Lawyers, the Broward County Bar Association's Technology and Professionalism Committees, and as President of the Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association.

Brendalyn is a graduate of Florida State University College of Law in Tallahassee, Florida and she received her B.A. from George Washington University in Washington, D.C.